Beautiful Character Home in North Ipswich

This beautiful Queenslander home was the original homestead of the Whitiker Family.

Situated in North Ipswich, the home sits upon a 809 sqm elevated block with views. The property is within in walking distance to shops, both Secondary and Primary schools as well as a short drive to major shopping complexes.

The location also allows very good highway access for commuters to both Brisbane or Toowoomba.

As you enter this character filled home through the white picket fence and well manicured gardens, the house is stylishly presented and features both front and side verandahs.

The home has traditional character features including fret work separating the lounge and dining room as well as above the bedroom doors in the hallway. There is also coloured glass, stained glass and polished floors.

The lounge room has a reverse cycle air conditioner plus a wood burning fire place and French doors that lead onto the veranda. The main bedroom features built-ins and is still large enough to accommodate extra furniture. The second bedroom also has ample room as well as French doors opening onto the verandah. The third bedroom features built-ins. There is a large
